

DRINK SIX GLASSES OF WATER DAILY

An Interesting Statement by One of the Big Men in the Drug Business

A. E. KIESLING

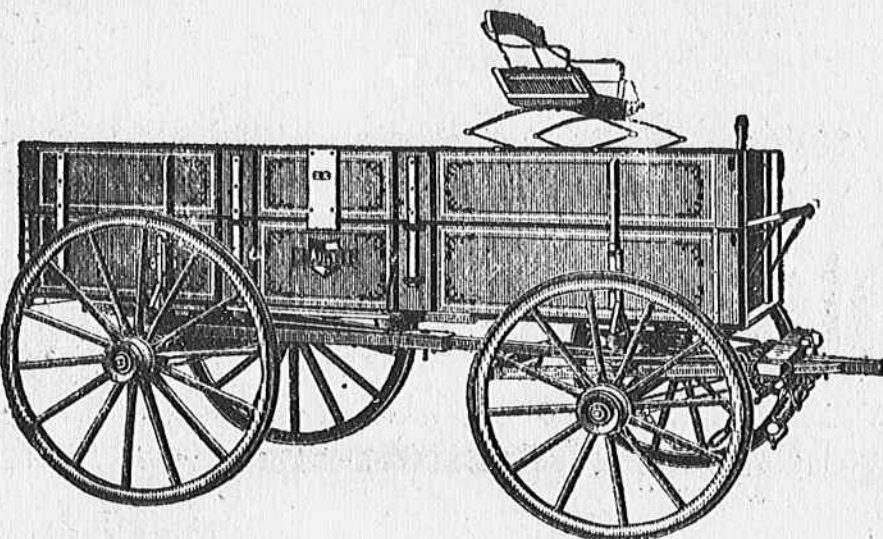

of Houston, Texas, says:
"If you have a muddy complexion and dull eyes, you are constipated. Six glasses of water daily and one or two Rexall Orderlies at night will correct this condition and make you 'fit as a fiddle.' Rexall Orderlies, in my opinion, are the best laxative to be had, and can be taken by men, women or children."

Don't Buy a Wagon Until You Have Seen the Columbus

Before you decide on any wagon, examine the Columbus. Strongly built of the best possible material the Columbus wagon gives the most satisfactory service for the longest period of years. There is no secret in the notably long life of the Columbus wagon. It is the result of the methods employed in construction. There is no wood in this wagon which has not been air-dried under shelter from one to two years.

The axles and the spokes of the wheels are hickory; the hounds, bolsters and sandboards are oak, and the bottom of the box is straight grained flawless pine. These are just a few examples of the care which is taken to make this wagon as reliable as possible. The result is that the Columbus wagon is unbeatable in reliability and endurance. Come in and examine it for yourself. We know you will be pleased.

Tragedies at Easley

Accidentally Kills His Wife

Mrs. Martha Galloway was accidentally shot and instantly killed by her husband, G. C. (Doc) Galloway, at their home in Easley last Thursday morning, December 30 about 10 o'clock.

Mr. Galloway is an insurance agent and the facts of the case seem to be that John Massey, also an insurance agent, and Wesley McGaha, brother of Mrs. Galloway, had called on him on business. Mr. Galloway had been on a trade for a shotgun, but had decided not to trade for it, and as his visitors were about to leave he asked them to take the gun to his owner. As he was handing the gun to his brother-in-law it fired, the entire load of shot entering the left side of Mrs. Galloway's neck, who was sitting in a chair with her baby in her arms. She fell from the chair dead and it was at first thought that the baby had also been killed, but when the blood was washed off it was found the baby was unharmed.

Coroner Medlin was notified and an inquest was held, the jury returning a verdict that "Martha Galloway came to her death by a gunshot wound in the hands of G. C. Galloway, her husband; from the evidence we believe it to be accidental."

Mr. Galloway is well thought of in Easley and is almost crazed by the tragedy. He did not know the gun was loaded when he was handling it.

Several children were left motherless and the community shocked by the affair.

Mrs. Pilgrim Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Lizzie Pilgrim, an aged lady living at the Easley cotton mill, died December 28 under somewhat peculiar circumstances. She was alone in the house when she died and when found her clothes were burned off and body also badly burned. A doctor who was called, however, stated that in his opinion Mrs. Pilgrim died from heart failure, and her pipe dropping from her mouth set fire to her clothes. It is known she was subject to heart trouble. Coroner Medlin investigated and found it unnecessary to hold an inquest. Mrs. Pilgrim was 64 years old and a native of Anderson county. She was a member of Flat Rock Baptist church of that county and the body was laid to rest at Oats burying ground the day following her death.

Negro Found Dead

Isaiah Burton, negro, was found dead early Tuesday, December 28, near Latham, four miles east of Easley. The body was found on a pile of crossties near the railroad and was considerably bruised, back and several ribs being broken. The negro had been working for one of the contractors on the double-tracking work of the Southern railway. No relatives could be found and the body was buried at the expense of the county, and about five dollars in money found on his person went to help pay burial expenses. It is practically certain that Burton was killed by one of the Southern's fast trains. An inquest was held over the body Tuesday and decided that the negro "came to his death by some unknown heavy instrument."

You've hit the right tobacco

when you fire-up some Prince Albert in your old jimmy pipe or in a makin's cigarette. And you know it! Can't get in wrong with P. A. for it is made right; made to spread-smoke-sunshine among men who have suffered with scorched tongues and parched throats! The patented process fixes that—and cuts out bite and parch. All day long you'll sing how glad you are you're pals with the national joy smoke

You take this testimony straight from the shoulder, men. You can smoke a barrel of P. A. without a kick! It hands out all the tobacco happiness any man ever dreamed about, it's so smooth and friendly. It's a mighty cheerful thing to be on talking-terms with your pipe and your tongue at the same time—but that's what's coming to you sure as you pin your faith to Prince Albert!
